MEMBERSHIP:

B-1 The purpose of this administrative policy by the Five Valley Kennel Club is to ensure prospective members are afforded an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the club and its necessary volunteer functions before deciding to apply for membership. Before an application for membership is made, prospective members are required to attend two general membership meetings within a 6 month period. The club may also require a home visit prior to accepting the application. Approved By Board 4/28/2015

B-2 After the two general meeting attendance requirement is fulfilled, the prospective member may submit an application for membership IAW FVKC By-Laws Article 1 Membership and Dues, Section 2 Election to Membership. Approved By Board 4/28/2015

B-3 Potential Members who have formally applied for membership will be advised by the Club VP of the meeting date, time and place when the first and second readings will occur, so they may chose to be present to answer any questions. Approved by Board 4/28/2015
